ACSCE is approved by AICTE and Government of Karnataka, and is affiliated to VTU Belgaum. This college offers B.E in Aeronautical Engineering, Bio-Medical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Computer Science Engineering, Electronics and Communication Engineering, Electrical and Electronics Engineering, Mechanical Engineering. The College also offers M.Tech in Software Engineering, Digital Electronics, and Communication Systems, Structure Engineering, Product Design and Manufacturing.

About Department

The department has started in 2009, certified by ISO. The department has outstanding track record and consistently intended to produce ECE Graduates of exceptional quality and caliber. The department has very good infrastructure and lab facilities as per VTU/AICTE norms and upgraded time to time to provide adequate opportunities for students and researchers to learn and innovate.

About Workshop

This workshop provides the contextual understanding of Signals and Systems Control System and Digital Signal Processing concepts, techniques being used in the Academics, Research areas & industries where E & C, E & E, E & I, and other engineering branches are working currently.

This workshop is for students, Faculty & Research Scholars who learn / teach Signals & Systems, Control Systems and Digital Signal Processing.
