

ACS COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Department of Biomedical Engineering

Anatomy lab visit report

The students of 3rd semester Biomedical Engineering visited the Anatomy Lab at Rarajeswari Medical College accompanied along with the faculty member Mr. Naveen T.S. Assistant Professor ,Department of Biomedical Engineering ,ACS College of Engineering on 5th October 2018.

Dr.Krishna G , Assistant Professor , Department of Anatomy , demonstrated and explained the anatomy of the major human organs. The students were able to see various human organs such as Heart , Kidney, Lungs, Brain, Stomach, Pancreas, Liver etc.

The session was from 10am to 1pm.

Students got immensely benefitted by viewing the various organs of human body. Since the 3rd semester students have Human Anatomy and Physiology subject in their curriculum.

Second year Biomedical Engineering students in Anatomy lab RRMCH

Dr. Krishna , Assistant Professor , Department of Anatomy , RRMCH demonstrating various human organs to the students of Biomedical Engineering.