Date & Time	: 06/05/2025 from 10.30 am to 12.30pm
Place	: AE Seminar Hall
Resource Person	: Mr.Ashok Naidu, Co-Founder, GATE Aerospace Academy, Hyderabad
No of Student Participants	: 86 Students
Event Coordinators	: Mr.Dhanyaprakash R & Mr.Albert, Asst. Prof, AE

About the Event:

Overview:

The Department of Aeronautical & Aerospace Engineering in Association with Aeronautical Skill Sector Council (ASSC) organized a Career Guidance Program titled "Opportunities for Aerospace Engineers through GATE" on 6th May 2025. The session aimed to educate and motivate students to prepare strategically for the GATE (Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering) exam, and to highlight the career opportunities it opens for aerospace engineering graduates.

The program was started at 10.30AM with the welcome speech and introduction talk was given by Dr.G.Ramanan, HOD, AE Dept. Dr Anandthirtha B Gudi-Principal, facilitated the resource person with a memento. During the event MoU has been signed for the mutual interaction for the benefit of students and faculty. The session was led by Mr. Ashok Naidu, an expert in GATE preparation and co-founder of the reputed GATE Aerospace Academy in Hyderabad. His extensive experience in mentoring aspirants made the event insightful and highly beneficial for the attendees.

Session Highlights:

- Mr. Naidu began with an introduction to the significance of GATE for aerospace engineering students, especially in securing admissions to prestigious institutions like IITs, IISc, and in recruitment to PSUs and research organizations.
- He discussed the structure and subject-wise analysis of the GATE Aerospace paper, along with a strategic approach to preparation, revision, and time management.

- The speaker also shared recent trends in GATE scores, qualifying marks, and the expected level of competition.
- Emphasis was placed on building conceptual clarity, solving previous years' question papers, and making use of online/offline resources effectively.
- Mr. Naidu also explained how GATE scores are used by organizations such as DRDO, ISRO, HAL, and others for recruitment.
- A lively interaction followed, where students clarified doubts regarding preparation timelines, balancing academics and GATE prep, and selecting the right study materials.

Outcome:

- The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from 86 students, who appreciated the clarity and depth with which the topic was handled. The session not only motivated students to aim for GATE seriously but also demystified the preparation process, boosting their confidence.
- Students expressed positive feedback about the practical advice shared by the speaker, particularly on managing the syllabus and building a strong foundation in key subjects like Aerodynamics, Structures, Propulsion, and Flight Mechanics.

The Career Guidance Program proved to be an enriching experience for the aspiring aeronautical engineers. The department expresses its sincere gratitude to Mr. Ashok Naidu for sharing his expertise and motivating the students. Special thanks to Mr. Albert for successfully coordinating and executing the event.
