About the Seminar

The Department of Aerospace Engineering in association with ASSC Students Chapter organized the workshop titled “Transforming Engineering Skills into Life Mastery” in view of Engineers Day Celebration to inculcate the practice on how to transform the engineering and cognitive skills into Life.

The program was started at 10.00 am with the welcome speech by Head of the Department Dr. C. Suresh and he also introduced the chief guest. The resource person handled a very interesting hands-on training session on Life Mastery. The resource person outlined the following points.

- ❖ How do you attempt a Problem?
- ❖ Role of Engineering mind into real world problems.
- ❖ Challenges in Life and Self Motivation
- ❖ Objectives and Mission for the Engineers in the World.

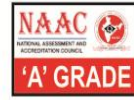

At the end of the session, students interacted with the resource person to clarify their doubts about the topic. Students expressed their gratitude that the program was highly informative and interesting. Finally, the workshop ended with a vote of thanks.
